4. Purposes

- Recommendations of RMAC for clarifications and updates based on current scholarship and expert applications to achieve conservation goals related to grazing
- Filling the need to propose a new widely-accepted standard among various agencies
- Primarily for use by state agencies managing rangelands but applicable for federal agencies, land trusts, municipal agencies, and professionals
- Identify key and required (with— *; as well as less priority—no *) elements for planning and grazing agreements
- Adaptable to each CA region (with different range vegetation and special resources) as determined by specialist professionals (usually CRMs); scalable for regions with tiering to specific sites
