Request for Nominations:

2022 FRANCIS H. RAYMOND AWARD

February 15, 2022

The California State Board of Forestry and Fire Protection is seeking nominations for the 2022 Francis H. Raymond Award. The annual award is given to the individual, organization, agency or company who has contributed the most to the management of California’s natural resources over the past five years.

The award is named in honor of Francis H. Raymond, former State Forester and father of the Professional Foresters Licensing Act.

The 2021 award was dually presented to an individual and an organization. Mr. Gary Rynearson, for his many achievements including his contributions to community service and forest policy, and the California Forest Pest Council, for their many contributions in the promotion and management of the state’s forest health.

Previous recipients of the Award include: Tom Jopson, Geri Bergen, Lois Kaufman, Dr. Richard Standiford, the Sierra Cascade Logging Conference, the California Society of American Foresters, Dr. Douglas Piirto, Douglas Ferrier, the UC Berkeley Forestry Program, Michael De Lasaux, Jere Melo, LA County Fire, and Diane Dealey Neill to name a few.

Nominations and any letters of support are due to the Board of Forestry and Fire Protection by no later than Friday, June 3, 2022. The nomination(s) will then be reviewed by the Board's nomination review committee. Upon a recommendation by the nomination review committee, the Award will be presented at one of the Board meetings scheduled for this fall. Direction on the suggested nomination format is provided below on the following page.

Additional information may be obtained by contacting the staff of the California State Board of Forestry and Fire Protection at 916-653-8007 or by email to dan.stapleton@bof.ca.gov. Nominations may be posted to the attention of the FHR Nomination Review Committee, Board of Forestry and Fire Protection, P.O. Box 944246, Sacramento, CA 94244-2460. Contributions to endow the Francis H. Raymond Award are greatly appreciated. The stipend that accompanies this Award depends on the interest earned from donations made to the Francis H. Raymond Fund.
Suggested Francis H. Raymond Award Nomination Format

THERE IS NO ESTABLISHED FORMAT FOR THE SUBMISSION OF NOMINATIONS. THE NOMINEES MUST AGREE TO THE SUBMISSION OF THEIR NAME FOR CONSIDERATION. BASED ON PREVIOUS SUCCESSFUL NOMINATIONS, THE FOLLOWING ITEMS ARE SUGGESTED FOR INCLUSION IN THE NOMINATION PACKET:

1) A short introduction letter on nominator’s letterhead.

2) A narrative of the nominee’s qualifications, educational background, work history and accomplishments. (The Award criteria dictates that the work of the past five years is the key to selection, irrespective of a long history of superior service or accomplishment)

3) Letters of support from other individuals and organizations are important. A wide spectrum of support from diverse interests, including local politicians, has been a characteristic of previous successful nominees.

4) Copies of newspaper or magazine articles on the nominee are key to supporting a nomination.

5) Attach examples of the nominee’s work and/or publications, if appropriate.

6) Photographs may be helpful if they illustrate the extent of the nominee’s dedication and accomplishment.

The key to the Award is effort above and beyond what is normally expected on the job. Volunteer efforts, serving on committees, public service, etc., are important.

The nomination committee requires only one copy of the nomination packet which may be scanned and emailed to Assistant Executive Officer Dan Stapleton at his email address dan.stapleton@bof.ca.gov. It is requested that all letters of support be included with the initial nomination, rather than submitted individually.

####